

I believe the Wisconsin no call list should be left as it is. It is more stringent than the federal one. I don't believe we need to start getting phone calls from all these banks as will surely happen if this is changed.